Cant Dogs,
Cant Dogs.

WE desire to call the attention of all Lumbermen to our

Orono Patent Cant Dogs

Which we believe to be the very best article of the kind now in the market Its advantages over all others consist in—

1st Having one Ring made of the very best Norway Iron so that there are no 'Toe Rings' to be pulled off when two or more men are picking against one another

2d The Pins are beveled and slide off easily instead of receiving a heavy shock when a man strikes and misses

3d. The Rings being complete in one the stock cannot chafe and break between the Rings, and last but not least there is no clasp to spread and slip all over the stock

We have also the exclusive sale of the

Aroostook Patent Cant Dogs,

which is also liked very much by those who have used them and we can furnish

Peavy Cant Dogs

At almost any price to suit customers

A certificate for the benefit of the afflicted

For twenty five years I had suffered with Scrofular and Salt Rheum, (or Tetter) Have paid out hundreds of dollars and been treated by several first class Physicians, without benefit Some four weeks ago I commenced using the University Medicines. At the time my forehead and head were covered with sores and scaliness of the skin also my tongue was covered with small Ulcers. I am to-day free from all the above troubles, and can most heartily recommend these medicines to the afflicted
L C MUNSEY, 7 Chesnut Street
Portland Jan 21 1870

For some fifteen days my family has been using the University Medicines with the most gratifying results My wife is fast recovering from Chronic Catarrh Bronchitis and Erysipelas. My daughter was so affected with catarrh, that her breath was very offensive In two days she was entirely released of the obnoxious smell, and I have no doubt in a short time will be entirely free of the disease
MR D STILLINGS, No 6 Alder Street
Portland Jan 1870

I have been afflicted for twenty years with Chronic Rheumatism I have spent hundreds of dollars for medical treatment without benefit, Ten days ago, I commenced taking the University Medicines, and I can truly say it has been more benefit to me than all other treatment I ever received My place of business is 137 Pearl street I shall be pleased to answer all inquiries JOHN TURNER
Portland Jan 24, 1870

I S Domingo three months ago crew sick proceeded to sea. Fourteen days out buried the mate most of the crew unfit for duty succeeded in getting the vessel into Boston, all the hands went to the hospital I employed a physician without benefit Left to Portland, and was cured with the University Medicine in 48 hours
N WALSH First Officer of Brig Koo-Doo
Portland, Jan 22 1870

For several years I have been troubled with the worst type of Scrofula four weeks ago my neck and breast was covered with Scrofula Ulcers. I then commenced taking the University Medicine My sores soon vanished and my general health is better than it has been before for seven years
MARGARET NOYES 4 Oxford street
Portland Jan 24, 1870

For some time I was troubled with a fearful consumptive cough My symptoms became truly alarming I was cured with one bottle of the University Hydrate Oxymel and Fusel oil

EVENING DISPATCHES

FROM WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Feb 28

The following general order has been issued from the head quarters of the army

1st. The Senators and Representatives from Mississippi having been admitted to their respective Houses of Congress the Command known as the 4th Military District has ceased to exist

2d By direction of the President the State of Mississippi is attached to the Department of Cumberland, and the officers and troops within the late 4th Military District, will accordingly report to Gen Cook, Commander of that Department

3d The General commanding the late 4th Military District will complete the records of that District, and send them to Adj t Gen of the army

The act admitting Mississippi is also promulgated in general orders from the head quarters of the army

EXCITEMENT IN WALL STREET—GOLD DOWN!

NEW YORK, Feb 28

The week opened with great excitement on announcement of the Treasury programme for March The official telegram from Washington placed the gold sales at $4,000,000—The different markets opened with buoyancy in the new programme, and there was a general advance in prices, and a much better feeling The gold market was the point of attention, and under a rush to cover on the part of some of the "bears," the price was run up to 117 before the formal opening of the room—The first recorded sale in the room was at 116⅜ At this point the usual official notice was posted in the Sub-Treasury, from which it appears that the Treasury is to sell $3,000,000 of gold in March, and buy $5,000,000 of bonds This extra million of gold exercised a remarkable influence and turned the whole current of speculation on the downward turn once more The price of gold rapidly declined from 116⅜ to 115¼, and afterwards reached to 115⅛ The excitement which attended this further decline in the gold premium was equal to almost anything ever witnessed in the gold room, and there was a near approach to a panic The rush to sell without regard to price, was tremendous

On the Stock Exchange there was also great excitement and activity at the opening the market was firm and a tendency to improve, in sympathy with the sharp rise in gold but when the break in gold took place there was a regular stampede to sell, and prices declined from 1 to 3 per cent from the highest point The market for a time was on the verge of a panic, being saved only by the efforts of brokers operating for 'bull' cliques

BODY FOUND

BOSTON, Feb 28

The body of John Dean, one of a party of four roughs who rescued a thief from policeman McNamara, three weeks ago, has been found in the dock with a pistol ball in the head It is supposed he was shot by the officer who fired three shots when the attack was made upon him and that having expired on the hands of his friends while being taken away, they threw the body into the dock

NEW YORK ITEMS

NEW YORK, Feb 29

A Revenue officer named Mike Brennon, yesterday while drunk, fired two shots from a revolver at a boy and was arrested The boy was not hurt

J McCormick, another rough implicated in the murder of John Markle, was arrested yesterday

Mrs Simon died yesterday in the Hospital from burns occasioned by the explosion of a kerosene lamp

PERSONAL AND POLITICAL

The World having parenthetically stated that Greeley was saved from the fury of the mob during the July riots by a friendly table-cover in a restaurant, Greeley mildly remarks that the author of the assertion "is a liar—a graceless shameless villainous detestable liar

Capt Isaiah Rynders is disgusted with Tammany He says, There's no chance for an honest man in New York politics any longer Why I took a thief up the river not eight months ago, and I came down to the City Hall the other day, and I found that same thief there, and he had a blasted sight more to say about things than I had"

A Washington special says that the Georgia Representatives elect mean to push their claims to seats the moment the bill admitting Georgia passes They claim that the fact that the last Congress admitted them is no bar They will first present Gen Meade's certificates, and then a set recently issued by Governor Bullock The Senate Judiciary Committee will probably decide in favor of Hill and Miller the first elected Senators

The Augusta correspondent of the Boston Advertiser says, "It is believed that the Republican Party will enter upon the important campaign of next year better united than last year Hon Samuel F Hersey of Bangor is announced as the probable candidate for Governor, by his friends, and whatever may be the desires of that gentleman himself, it is certain that he is the favorite of a great portion of the party, and that he would prove a strong candidate. On the other hand there is quite a general expression in favor of Governor Chamberlain"

JOHN H. LYNDE, - - PROPRIETOR

TUESDAY, MARCH 1, 1870.

If the Democratic party in New Hampshire at all indicates the spirit and character of the Democracy of the country at this time, they have a truly deplorable out-look. Without definite purpose except to fight blindly against those who would advance, without leaders who inspire enthusiasm, without hope of improving their influence or gaining popular confidence, without followers who can be held together by the hollow slogans with which they have heretofore been led to battle, distracted by the side issues that have been thrust in for the only purpose of giving them courage and hope, the party in the Granite State appears well nigh dispersed. Its leaders have vacillated, and they have been holding stormy meetings, and scolding each other most savagely. While one faction is for the absolute surrender to the so-called labor reform party, another is for bolting directly across the line and voting for Stearns because of Bedell's unpopularity, and the straight Democracy appear to be the smallest faction of the old party

And this is about typical of the situation of affairs throughout the country. Democracy everywhere since the target which furnished them belligerent propensities, the negro, has been destroyed by the 15th amendment, is engaged in plucking out its own eyes and tearing its own limbs New Hampshire commences the campaign at the close of one year of Grant's administration with the weakest possible opposition to the Government. Connecticut is not much more creditable to Democratic harmony; the factions are fighting each other with a difficult smothering of open warfare New York is avowedly and boisterously agitated with Democratic "civil war," and in fact, having no cohesive principle to attract them to unity, the Democratic party is engaged in a general overhauling of each other The country will profit, because in these quarrels they will tell many truths of each other and expose the cause of many of our national ills, and because they will become hopelessly divided and Republican victories will be easy.

The other picture is more agreeable. The Republican party is divided only by the emulation of its leaders to deserve the economies of the people for economy and retrenchment it is united solidly upon the great subjects upon which it has had to legislate as a legacy of the war All that seems necessary for it to do in order to go on conquering still is to administer the Government for the coming year with the vigor shown in the past, to reduce tariffs and taxes as fast as possible consistently with financial safety, and to economise the expenditures in every possible direction — And these things they will do

The Legislative Committee, composed of Democrats and Republicans, to investigate the disordered state of affairs in the 3d Congressional District of South Carolina, have reported that there was a thoroughly organized party in that district, whose purpose was to defeat the real objects of the Reconstruction acts, and that this party had murdered, whipped, threatened and intimidated the Republicans The Democratic portion of the Committee are preparing a minority report, asserting that the majority report is highly colored, but not denying the the material facts

---

The Portland Advertiser classes General John A. Logan among what it calls Blatherskites. Why? He was a brave General, he is an earnest Republican and that question cannot be answered except upon the pretty sound theory that the Democrats, hating him for the ungloved vigor with which he handles them, attack him with a venom which is irresistible to the weak-backed Republicans who thirst for an "independent," a "conservative," reputation, which is very easily manufactured by jumping up and riding behind — To make yourself independent in the general prejudices of association, claim political or social relationship with some gentleman, and then throw mud at his house. Bravo!

MAINE VICTIMIZED.

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier

It is a question whether the people of Maine are the rulers of their own State

They have appointed an honest, clear headed, able, Insurance Commissioner, who tells them that foreign Insurance Companies are carrying millions of dollars out of the State annually, and doing a very profitable business, for which they should be taxed, as they are in Massachusetts and other States When he presents the matter to the Legislature, he is met and overwhelmed by the agents of these Insurance Companies and his plan of taxation is overthrown!

Let the people inquire into the immense profits of these Companies, and see the luxurious style in which their business is carried on and then say if they ought not to contribute something towards the existence of the State that so generously patronizes them

The people have appointed a keen, judicious Superintendent of Common Schools, who recommends a uniformity of School books throughout the State, being satisfied that the interests of education will be advanced by the measure, and that it will be an annual saving to the State of at least $50,000.

It is well known that the principal towns and cities of the State are often beset by foreign book-publishers, to introduce their books, and there is not unfrequently a scramble among local publishers to get control of a particular town. These publishers are rich and powerful. It is not difficult to understand, how they, by direct, or indirect means, have succeeded in defeating the measure proposed by the State Superintendent.

The great Railroads of the State ask the Legislature to consolidate them into one body; the effect of which will be to give them not only the Railroad, but the political, control of the State, when they see fit to use their immense influence for that purpose And as "corporations have no souls," they will have no scruples in regard to using their influence when it is for their interest to do so

The City Councils of Bangor, Portland and Lewiston, aware of the great danger to the State, if this measure is accomplished, have requested the representatives of those cities in the Legislature to vote against it.

It is well known that one of the Roads at least, the European and North American, is in a great measure under the control of capitalists out of the State. As soon as the vote of the Bangor City Council was known, members of that body were beset by people in the interest of that road to reconsider the vote Not being able to effect this, they requested a hearing. It was granted, and had in the City Hall in presence of a large number of citizens. After the hearing, it was very evident that the citizens were strongly opposed to Consolidation, and the City Council, after taking time for consideration, voted not to reconsider the vote, with but one dissenting vote in the Board of Aldermen.

But this information was not satisfied with this it sent its agents among the citizens with printed petition directed to the legislature, or our representatives, to vote for the consolidation, and importuned [illegible] a goodly number of names to this petition, and then sent the petition and names to the Legislature, [illegible] counter petition withdrawn, or, at least, withheld until next Thursday! Then, perhaps they expect the great scheme will be accomplished and the people shut hand and foot!

Now, is Maine a "free and independent State," or is it to be, under the control of foreigners who have not a particle of interest in it except to get its money?

Republicans should recollect that power does not go from one party to another without a cause Then representatives have a great responsibility in this respect.

One thing is fortunate for the people the Press is still free

A FRIEND OF RAILROADS, AND FOE OF MONOPOLIES.

A VOYAGE TO FRANCE

PARIS, France, Feb 7th 1870

To the Editor of the Whig & Courier

I promised to send you an occasional letter I now avail myself of the columns of the Whig & Courier to address compendiously friends who may perhaps take some interest in our progress and welfare

At last, after years of anticipation, we embark at New York on Saturday January 22d, 1870, for Europe, in the French steamer Lafayette A crowd collects to bid friends good bye, and a safe return, or "a bon voyage" We sail amid the cheers of the multitude the waving of handkerchiefs and the booming of cannon It is a bright and beautiful day We glide rapidly down the spacious bay passing the city of New York, with its forests of masts and crowded thoroughfares, the heights of Brooklyn, Staten Island, crowned with elegant villas, and the coasts of New Jersey At Sandy Hook the pilot leaves, carrying back last missives from departing friends By 3 o'clock, P M, the shores of Long Island sink beneath the Western horizon to reappear again we hope in early autumn with all our relations and friends

Thus we commence "A Life on the Ocean wave, A home on the rolling deep" We now have ample leisure to survey our temporary home The Lafayette is 375 feet long and 45 feet wide amidships and proves to be a strong, steady sea boat, has an engine of 1000 horse power, is manned by about one hundred men including officers and crew and has an attentive polite corps of waiters, only two of whom can speak the English language It was built on the Clyde, where its strong wooden ribs were encased with thick iron armor, and all the resources of naval architecture were employed to make it convenient, buoyant, strong, and fast

The French Government pays the owners of this line of steamers a subsidy for carrying the mails and thus provides a school for training mariners and can effectively use the vessels in time of war Wooden steamers and ships of war in consequence of the improvement of cannon, have become obsolete, and the United States would be wise to recognize this fact, and also pay a subsidy to an American line of steamers which shall transport its citizens and mails to Europe in time of peace and serve in part for a Navy in war. Although Americans are the greatest travellers in the world, and swarm in every large city in Europe they are entirely dependent for ocean transit upon foreign nations, who buy their steamers at Glasgow, where labor and iron are so cheap that they can be made and sold for less price than elsewhere, but our countrymen are deterred from purchasing such steamers, because by our laws they are prohibited to convert foreign built vessels into American tonnage. Unless there is a change in our policy, we cannot expect to recover our former rank as a commercial people. At least it would seem to be right and expedient either to buy ships to replace those which we were compelled to sell during the war to save them from destruction, or to so change our tariff that our own ship-carpenters can again successfully compete with foreigners in the construction of iron ships

The propelling genius of the Lafayette is worthy of notice It eats about 100 tons of coal a day, its strong heart beats without intermission night and day, its iron hands constantly turn its double screws and send the ship onward more than 300 miles every twenty four hours It takes advantage of every propitious breeze to spread its white wings, and thus accelerate its progress Its speed at its precise place on the water, are ascertained with great accuracy by casting the log, by computing the evolutions of the wheels and by observations of the sun at meridian So well does it keep the right path that on the second day it meets and passes the Pereire each passing to the right By the evolutions of an electrical machine, kept in motion by steam, electricity is generated and conducted forward in a constant current producing a brilliant light which can be seen far distant and thus obviate a collision with other vessels.

Through a friend we had selected a state room about a month in advance amidships that we might not feel so much the motion of the boat, and on the starboard side that the morning sun might look in upon us through the circular windows, eight inches in diameter It was one of the longest, being 6 feet by 10, and as elegant and comfortable as such narrow quarters could be made, and we have endeavored to prepare ourselves by diet and medical treatment for a long winter voyage. The first day the sea was so calm and placid that we hoped we might escape the dreadful "mal de mer," but the second and every succeeding day it stormed at intervals with wind constantly south-west, sending us swiftly onward. Old Neptune roused himself from his late quiet repose and stirred the ocean to its profoundest depths The boat rocked and pitched, and Dr Bradbury and myself did the same In fact, after all our precautions we were sick of the sea and regarded it with nausea and disgust for six long days and nights

Still we would not be immured in our coffin-like berths, but staggered on deck when ever the rain permitted, determined to see and understand everything that transpired — We often observed the numerous compasses that constantly pointed their quivering fingers due North, by means of which we kept on our course, straight to the East on the trackless sea, when for ten days we could not see nor take an observation of the sun at mid day We watched the graceful flights of the American sea gulls which accompanied us half way across, and then were serenaded by the European gulls with different markings, their snowy wings being tipped with black.— The porpoises which appeared to Dr Todd so often, only deigned us a single visit. Once a school at play ran a race with us leaping entirely out of water several times in succession, with an evident determination not to be outdone, but soon fell in the rear apparently very much out of breath We scanned the ocean in every direction but though it contained thousands of sails, not one could be seen, except on the first and last two days of the voyage, so vast is the mighty deep. By night we witnessed the phosphorescent lights of the animalcule or night-sainers, and the sparkling water in our wake.

In thirty six hours we reached the Gulf Stream, when a change of temperature was apparent, and in five days we were in mid-ocean, 1500 miles from any land, then the southwest wind blew a gale. "The winds that take the ruffian billows by the tops, curling their heads," lashed the ocean to a perfect fury The mountain waves chased the vessel in mad career, threatening to engulph us in their briny folds. The ship would plunge headlong into the trough of the sea, as if about to dive into the water, just escape it would rise languidly and leap over the billow billows like a thing of life. These "monsters" waves were apparently about 15 feet [illegible] er The sea looked really mountainous, with deep, dark, blue valleys, and foaming [illegible] crests, and when the waves rose and broke, blending their heads they displayed the most beautiful combination of colors, the different shades of blue, green and white, and when the sun looked down for a few moments through an opening in the clouds, it gilded them with a halo of beauty and glory Several persons on board, who had crossed a dozen times had never before seen such a storm It was the sight of a lifetime, but notwithstanding the grandeur of the scene, its utility for commerce and as a purifier of the atmosphere, for real substantial comfort I would not give one solid acre of land for the whole treacherous ocean.

Our fellow passengers were fifty-six in number about half of whom were ladies, and included several men of distinction, such as the well known Dr Jeffries Wyman, Professor of Comparative Anatomy, and Geo Washburn, Professor of Law, Harvard University, Dr Charles J Ives, Professor of Theory and Practice Yale College; Judge Davis of the Circuit Court of Indiana Viscount de Thierry General Gilmore of the Army and Navy and Henry A Ward Professor of Natural Sciences Rochester University, N Y

The latter had lost by fire the past winter a private museum, valued at $48,000—insured for $38,000—which he had been collecting with great industry the past 15 years travelling its 600 miles in Europe Asia and Africa for the purpose and had also collected an extensive and valuable museum for his University with $9,000 very rich in every department of natural science Some of the specimens lost can never be replaced But not discouraged he visits again the best localities in Europe, to commence another collection — Such men are indefatigable they rise above the waves of misfortune they pluck success even from adversity As he is still a young man about thirty five has an intense love for science and has had the benefit of the example and instructions of Agassiz he will doubtless beam in other spheres to the world around.

Gen Gilmore is a son-in-law of Webster from [illegible] inches high with large head, broad forehead of the [illegible] type, firm lips His appearance and movements denote decision and action from [illegible] He [illegible] every inch a hero and is said to be one of the best engineers in the army. Under his direction the Swamp Angel and other engines of destruction rained iron hail upon Polish, and Charleston when the great rebellion began. He spoke in commendation of the [illegible] cheerly qualities of Maine troops under his command

The passengers soon became acquainted with each other and relished the treatment the voyage the conversation games of chance and eating; for in addition to the daily cooked French style two lunches consisted of eight or ten courses with change of plates Coffee tea and wine were served ad libitum When in bed we devoured French lunches and longed for home diet

Finally on the [illegible] 1st I once again descried like a dim line far in the ocean, twilight, then the shores of the Port of Brest rose above the waves Its hills were verdant with green grass and waving grain We passed along the English Channel to the mouth of the river by doing against the rocks coast and in the end of February we enter Havre en Harbor, as its name signifies There we remain haven of rest, after tossing on the stormy ocean eleven days, and traversing 3000 miles We recognize with delight the landscapes which had been portrayed by the immortal pencil of Turner, whose engravings we had so often enjoyed We land upon terra firma but the land is far from firm after the [illegible] of the roll of the sea for two days The ocean is far in advance of our own

Hail belle France! beautiful even now, but how much more enchanting when the warm [illegible] of Spring shall have breath d on the trees and their busy [illegible] shall have covered with [illegible] branches with [illegible] garments

[illegible] FIRST CONGRESS—SECOND SESSION

WASHINGTON, D C Feb 28

SENATE

The Vice President presented resolutions of the Rhode Island and Virginia Legislatures—the former ratifying the 14th, and the latter the 14th and 15th constitutional amendments [illegible] ferred to Judiciary Com.

Mr Sumner offered a bill to enforce the amendment to the Constitution declaring that the right to vote shall not be denied or abridged on account of race, color or previous condition of servitude

It provides that any person hindering a citizen of the United States, on any of these grounds from voting, being voted for or holding office, shall be punished by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $500, and by imprisonment of not less than 30 days nor more than one year

A refusal to register the name or to receive, count or give proper legal effect to the vote of any citizen under any pretence of race, color, &c, shall be punished by a fine of not less than $500 nor more than $5000, and by imprisonment of not less than [illegible] calendar months or more than two years

The United States District Courts are given exclusive jurisdiction in these cases and are required to enforce the law. Referred to Judiciary Com.

The joint resolution authorizing the Northern Pacific Railroad to issue bonds for the construction of the road and secure them by mortgage was debated until the funding bill was taken up on which Mr Sherman made a long speech in defence and explanation—He reviewed the history of the public debt, asserting that the general act of February, 1862 conferred extraordinary powers and was clearly intended to make notes issued under it legal tender for pre-existing debts, quoting from a letter of Judge Chase in support of this view. The subsequent enlargements of legal tenders to $450 000 000 were all revolutionary expedients which should have been abandoned the moment the war ceased. The three great legal errors committed were

1st—By the Secretary of the Treasury in 1864 in allowing holders of 7-30s to convert them into 5-20s

2d—Continuing that option and issuing seven hundred millions of notes not convertible into bonds

3d—The failure of Congress to promptly retrace its steps and restore to legal tender notes the right of conversion into bonds

He gave a detailed history of the different funding bills, declaring that the present was the most favorable time that ever had existed for funding the debt. The bill now submitted was approved by every member of the Finance Committee except one, and had the hearty concurrence of the Secretary of the Treasury

Mr Sherman believed 5 per cent to be the lowest rate at which the funding could be effected. Secretary Boutwell was more hopeful. The payment of the interest abroad would operate to reduce the rate and was provided for in the bill, and a sinking fund of one per cent on our whole indebtedness was also provided for in the bill

Mr Sherman in closing argued for the good effect the bill would have on the national banks requiring them to either aid the government in reducing the interest or take their money for investment elsewhere and enlarged on its beneficial results in strengthening public confidence in the country and avoiding the possibility of a party pledged to repudiation

Mr Revels was appointed on the Com. on Education and Labor

Messrs Hamlin and Anthony at their own request were excused from serving on the Com on Disabilities and Mines respectively

A resolution was offered and laid over instructing the Com on Public Lands to insert in all future bills granting land in aid of the construction of railroads a provision securing rights to settlers and requiring sales at the same price as alternate government sections, that the country may be more rapidly settled and the people protected from land monopoly

Mr Davis gave notice to recommit the bill with instruction

The Senate went into executive session and soon after adjourned.

HOUSE

A resolution was offered favoring such a tariff for revenue in foreign imports as will incidentally protect domestic manufactures without impairing the revenue and impose the least burdens upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial pursuits of the country

Mr Kelsey of New York objected as the House had had enough of such buncombe

Mr Wood of New York moved to lay it on the table Lost

The resolution was then adopted Yeas [illegible] nays 56

As the vote was being taken the facts became known which caused much amusement among the Republican side of the House, that while Democrats generally were voting against the resolution, it had been copied verbatim, from the National Democratic platform adopted in New York, July, 1868

The resignations of Messrs Golladay of Kentucky, and Deweese of North Carolina, who were implicated in the sales of Cadetships, were presented by the speaker

In the committee of the whole on the Indian appropriation bill, Col Baker's massacre of the Oregon Indians was further discussed Mr Wilkinson of Minesota, asserting that Gen Hancock rather than Gen Sheridan was responsible for the affair, which Mr Wood of New York denied, declaring that Gen Hancock's only medium of communication was between Gen. Sheridan and his subordinates

Mr Stevenson of Ohio claimed that the responsibility rested solely with the man who executed the order. The truth was the Quaker's broad brim had been assumed by some gentlemen of the House for no other purpose than to attack Gen Sheridan He would not give Phil Sheridan, "Glorious Cavalry Phil," for all the wild indians between the Mississippi and the Pacific and if there were a great many other people thrown in with the Indians he still would not trade (Laughter)

Having disposed of 34 pages of the bill the Committee rose and the House adjourned.

TENNESSEE AFFAIRS—BROWNLOW'S VIEWS

NEW YORK, Feb 28

The following is a special dispatch to the New York Times—

KNOXVILLE, Tenn, Feb 27,

Senator Brownlow publishes a card in this morning's Whig, saying "I am in favor of setting aside the present State Government of Tennessee, and the doings of the State Convention and the present Legislature, and of the appointment of a Military Governor backed up by national troops which will put a stop to the wholesale murder of white and colored Unionists That Congress will do this I have no sort of doubt" His card occasions some excitement. He predicts that the party fraudulently usurping the State Government will get sick of rejecting the 15th amendment and of removing the present patriotic Judiciary and other wicked legislation

THE SEPTEMBER GOLD PANIC—GENERAL GRANT'S LETTER.

NEW YORK, Feb. 28

During the revelations which followed the September gold panic, much reference was made to a letter addressed by the President to Secretary Boutwell and left with Mr Butterfield to be delivered to the Secretary on his return from Massachusetts to Washington about the middle of September That letter was alleged to have been an endorsement of the Gould-Corbin theory of high gold The letter is as follows—

New York City, Sept. 12, 1869

Hon George S. Boutwell, Secretary of the Treasury

Dear Sir—I leave here to-morrow morning for Western Pennsylvania and will not reach Washington before the middle of next week. Had I known before making my arrangements for starting that you would be in this city early next week, I would have remained to meet you. I am satisfied that on your arrival you will be met by the bulls and bears of Wall street and probably by merchants also, to induce you to sell gold or pay the November interest in advance on the other. The fact is a desperate struggle is now making and each party wants the Government to help them out. I write this letter to advise you of what I think you may expect to put you on your guard. I think from the light before me I would move on without change until the present struggle is over. If you want to write me this week my address will be Washington Penn I would like to hear your experience with the factions at all events, if they give you time to write No doubt you will have a better chance to judge than I for I have avoided a general discussion of the subject, Yours truly, U S. GRANT

THE OXFORD RAILROAD ACCIDENT

MEMPHIS, Feb 28

Charles McCormick and four emigrants who were injured in the Oxford Railroad disaster have since died

FROM WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Feb 28

The Senate Judiciary Committee expect to report on the Georgia bill Wednesday They will recommend the acceptance of the existing Legislature, but will not express a preference for either of the four Senators

The Postmaster-General to-day transmitted to the Senate, returns from 454 principal Post-offices, showing the amount of free mail matter handled during January, as follows The number of free letters were 860,704, the postage thereon at regular rates, would be $117,309,73, the weight of pre printed matter sent, 346,104 pounds, and the postage thereon at the regular rates would be $42,334,36, the total cost of free matter from 454 Post-offices, would be $159,734,09 The Postmaster General says considering this exhibit a safe estimate, if full returns had been received from all the offices for January, the aggregate amount would have exceeded $200,000, or at a rate of $2,400,000 per annum He says it is impossible to detect much of the fraud and abuse accomplished under the franking system, as the law will not allow the breaking of the seals of franked matter to determine their contents, but the small proportion returned to the dead letter office shows many cases of abuse. Books, papers and circulars not printed by the order of Congress and other matter were transmitted free in the mails Mr. Cresswell says the agitation for the repeal of the franking privilege, produced a great increase in the sale of stamps The receipts for this service for January, 1870, being $311,322,50 greater than for January 1869 The Postmaster General reiterates at length his well known views and earnest desire for the immediate and total abolition of franking

A dispatch from Minister Motley this morning, announces the loss of the United States steamer Oneida and 120 men by a collision with the British mail steamer Bombay, 16 miles off Yokohama The latter was not much injured

WASHINGTON NEWS

WASHINGTON, Feb 27

ORIGIN OF THE INVESTIGATION INTO THE SALE OF CADETSHIPS

General Grant, while Secretary of War under Andy Johnson, ascertained that cadet ships had not only been made a political currency with which friends were rewarded or opponents conciliated, but that they were unblushingly bought and sold for greenbacks The General at once proposed to have those Cadets whose places had been purchased and dismissed from the Military Academy, but Attorney General Evarts decided that they could "stick" unless discharged by a Court martial or a special act of Congress The matter was then temporarily dropped until General Slocum, the Democratic Representative from Brooklyn, who is himself a graduate of West Point, had his attention called to it by an advertisement in a newspaper virtually offering cadetships for sale to the highest bidders This prompted the present inquiry, which has already resulted in the resignation of Mr Whittemore

The Congressional Committee on pursuing the investigation, have met with great difficulty in finding the third parties who acted as agents between the Congressmen and the fathers or friends of the appointees. They have invariably discovered that the aforesaid fathers or friends were able to to swear that they had never paid money to any Congressmen, but close questioning has always developed the name of a go-between The evidence also shows that the go-betweens generally pocketed more than half the amount paid them

It is said that among the new discoveries of those who have sold appointments are Messrs Newhall and Vidal of Lousiana, and Edwards of Georgia, all of the Fortieth Congress, and that the Committee propose to ask to be relieved from investigating any charges except those against members of the present Congress

ANOTHER CONGRESSIONAL TRADER CAPTURED

The Military Committee intend to report a resolution of expulsion in the case of Mr Deweese of North Carolina, and the facts in the case of Mr Butler of Tennessee The evidence taken Saturday shows that Mr Deweese made a direct bargain with a boy in this city for a naval cadetship for $500, that the money was paid in to his hands and the boy has been in the academy for the last year The mother of the boy appeared before the Committee Saturday and swore that the appointment has been of no pecuniary advantage to Mr Deweese but in her cross-examination she broke down and the fact came out that the money had been paid back by him since the investigation began. This in addition to promise to sell the West Point appointment and the subsequent disposition of it to buy off State Senator Laziter of North Carolina While the Committee has no positive evidence in Mr. Golladay's case the belief is that there is a dodge in it, which they propose to ascertain. Mr Butler's case is not clear as to whether the agreement to pay money was made before the appointment was given or not, but the testimony will be reported to the House for its action. The testimony of General Shriver, Inspector-General, through whose hands the West Point appointments pass, was to the effect that he held back some fifteen nominations last spring on the ground that the boys were not bona fide residents of the district. The question was finally submitted to the Attorney-General, who decided that one day's residence would meet the requirements of the law, and Gen. Shriver was therefore overruled

NEW PUBLICATIONS

The Bible and the School Fund by Rev Rufus W Clark D D, is an earnest, manly protest against the action of the Cincinnati School Committee excluding the Bible and all religious instruction from their public schools It is a good noble, Christian book, and should find a place at every man's fireside Published by Lee & Shepard, Boston

Behind the Scenes is the title of a small book bearing the imprint of the New England News Company, purporting to give a history of the struggles and experiences of a young girl who aspired to be an actress It is a cheap, trashy affair, which no adult will, and no youth should read

THE LONDON QUARTERLY for January opens with a very mild criticism of Tennyson's "Holy Grail," followed by a long article on "Life Insurance Companies" The Land Question in France" "Era of George the Third," an interesting sketch of two of England's most gifted daughters, Miss Austin and Miss Mitford, followed by the inevitable "Byron Mystery" Republished by the Leonard Scott Publishing Co., New York.

HOURS AT HOME for March has an interesting table of contents, among which are "A Day with a Roman Gentleman," "A Glimpse of Thackery," "The Mystery of Dreaming," and a sensible, well written article by Rev. George B. Bacon on "The Literature of our Sunday Schools." The stories and poems are of a high order. Published by Charles Scribner & Co., New York.

POETRY.

"THE FORGET-ME-NOT"

Down in the wood is a shady vale,
With murmuring brooks and birds, and flowers
Where zephyrs linger with perfumed breath,
To while away the summer hours
Long years ago as the legend tells
Angels, not men gave flowers their name,
And to this vale on a bright spring morn
By word of God the flowers all came

And in the midst with snow-white robe
An angel stood, sent from above,
Her crown all bright with the stars of Heaven
A messenger of God's sweet love,
Then, one by one as each flower she passed,
A name she spoke by God's will given,
The flowers low bending with timid grace,
Raised their bright heads in thanks to Heaven

As the angel looked on all, she saw
A wee blue flower with head still bent,—
As fragile form to the earth bowed low,—
And grief new grace to beauty lent,
Hast thou no name," with envied voice she asked?
My name was given, but I forgot"!
Trembling with fear the blue eyes drooped,
When the angel said "forget-me-not"!

AGRICULTURE.

FEEDING ANIMALS It has not proved profitable to feed cattle large quantities of grain or meal at a time A moderate quantity fed with great regularity, and the comfort of the animals generally attended to, so that there may be a constant and continued improvement, has succeeded best. We have known a number of experiments, giving results similar to the following: A neighbor, who had provided himself platform scales for the purpose fed a fine steer first with four quarts of barley meal daily in addition to his fodder and found by weighing that he gained regularly eighteen pounds a week But he was urged to 'push him,' in order to see what could be made of so fine an animal He was accordingly fed with eight quarts a day, when the increase immediately became less, and on increasing the meal to twelve quarts a day, he gained nothing. Overfeeding had proved an injury It is important to avoid the error of feeding animals too little for a time, and then attempting to make up the deficiency by overdoing The best way, and in fact the only way, for success, is to keep up a constant increase, year in and year out.

As to the quantity of general feed for cattle they should have about at the rate of two and a half pounds daily for each hundred pounds of their weight—a large animal of course requiring more than a small one This quantity will of course vary with the character of the animal, the condition and quality of the food, care in feeding, &c but it is about a fair average, when the food is of a mixed character or part meal. Swine require about three pounds for each hundred pounds of live animal [Country Gentleman

TO REJUVENATE OLD GRAPE VINES The editor of the Practical Farmer says 'Having on our premises planted by former owners, probably twenty years, half a dozen old grape vines with large weather beaten trunks or stems, which made annually but little new wood and yielded but very few poor grapes, two seasons ago we cut off the branches and laid the main stems down in the trenches, covering with about a foot of earth Vigorous and healthy shoots sprang up in great abundance—the weak ones of which were broken off and leading ones at proper distances trained to the arbor The new growths are now clean, healthy and strong—sufficient to entirely cover the large arbor the present season, we look for bushels of fruit from the new bearing wood. We see old grape vines, everywhere, doing no good and which could be made young and thrifty by this process'

TURNIPS The venerable John Johnston, has recently written a letter to the Country Gentleman, in which he says, roots can never be raised to a large extent in this country unless wages were as low as in Germany or Denmark The feeding out enough of roots to fat fifty head of cattle would cost more than would pay at present price of labor Four quarts of corn meal will do more good to a steer than 120 pounds of turnips, in my opinion. If roots could be fed off with sheep in the field in winter, then I would say raise them. Corn can be raised for less labor, taking feeding and everything into consideration than roots, and we have also the corn stalks which make excellent fodder if properly taken care of.

The best record of butter making of which we have ever heard is furnished us by a friend in this city who is an enthusiastic Jersey man, so far as cows are concerned, and that, too, with good reason, as will appear by the following He has two thorough-bred Jersey cows (Nos 452 and 511 Jersey Herd Book) One of these cows is from the stock of the late Dr Holmes the other from importations of the late John A. Taintor of Hartford, Conn These cows dropped calves the last of May, 1869, and from their milk between June 15 and Feb 15, five hundred and four pounds of butter was made The two calves were also raised to eight weeks of age The butter, except that reserved for use in the family, was sold for fifty cents per pound The calves were sold for $16 One of the cows calves again about April 10, 1870 and the other in May Take then the legitimate gross profits of these cows—it aggregates, $268, for eight months ending Feb 16! We defy any honest business to show a more satisfactory exhibit. Long wave the Jerseys' Our friend will please accept our thanks for the tempting English butter balls, showing so sumptuously what the Jerseys and the butter makers in his family can do [Lewiston Journal

MEDICAL PROPERTIES OF EGGS The white of an egg has proved of late the most efficacious remedy for burns Seven or eight successful applications of this substance soothes pain and effectually excludes the burned parts from the oil. This simple remedy seems preferable to collodion or even cotton Extraordinary stories are told of the healing properties of a new oil which is easily made from the yolk of hen's egg The eggs are first boiled hard, and the yolks are then removed, crushed and placed over a fire, where they are carefully stirred until the whole substance is just on the point of catching fire when the oil separates and may poured off One yolk will yield nearly two teaspoonfuls of oil It is in general use among the colonists of Russia as a means of curing cuts, bruises and scratches.

AGRICULTURAL ITEMS

The Ellsworth American says that the Messrs Stackpole of Bluehill, raised in 1869, 80 bushels of corn upon one acre.

Mrs Phœbe Staples of Penobscot in 1869 wove 600 yards of cloth. She has woven 1000 yards in a year, says the American

The Ellsworth American says that Mr Harry Lowell of Penobscot has a grade Durham bull 11 months old, whose girth is five feet.

The Ellsworth American says that Mr C Osgood of Bluehill from 23 hens sold in 1869 $60 worth of eggs and raised 20 chickens

Mr S O Hill of Manchester, has this winter raised full-sized green peas on vines growing in his sitting-room, fed with water and air entirely, having no soil in which to root.

The Dover Observer says that Capt. Leonard Robinson of Foxcroft, has a Durham cow 7 years old the coming spring, which has had seven calves, the last of which weighed when two days old 145 lbs.

The Reporter says that Messrs Vosmus and Batchelder, Skowhegan, are doing one of the most extensive wool pickings and pelt tanning business in the State Mr Vosmus is most favorably known as a wool dealer of many years.

At a late meeting of the Waltham, Mass, Farmer's Club, Mr Dickinson said that he had successfully protected his plants from the depredations of the striped bug by taking a barrel hoop, cut it in halves at right angles and set in the ground over a hill of vines, and covered this with newspaper It worked well.

The Maine Farmer says that the Superintendent of the National Military Asylum in Augusta, has evinced his interest in matters pertaining to improved agriculture, by purchasing for the Asylum farm five full-blooded Devons.

THE RATE OF WAGES OF FARM LABORERS IN THE UNITED STATES. Mr J R. Dodge, Statistician of the Department of Agriculture at Washington, [illegible] monthly report the result of [illegible] of the rate of wages of farm labor [illegible] data [illegible] the counties in the United States—the second effort (a similar one having been made three years ago) of the kind [illegible] These statistics [illegible] have a special [illegible] as well as the [illegible]

The [illegible] the fact [illegible] United States [illegible] board, [illegible] the [illegible] years ago [illegible] borers was [illegible] also shows [illegible] this [illegible] the value of all [illegible] that while our labor has been subject to competition by millions of immigrants, its rate of reward has been gradually increasing, and the demand for it has outrun the supply

The present investigation shows a decline in these averages, although the reduction of wages has not kept pace with the decline of prices of agricultural and nearly all other kinds of products. The agricultural laborer can now obtain nearly two bushels of wheat for the labor which would pay for one bushel at the close of 1866 The average rate of wages for all farm labor as established in this report, is $26 18 per month without board, and with board, $15 88.

A comparison of the averages of the various sections of States shows that prices have increased at the South on account of the cotton profits and the more general employment of white labor in California they have been fully maintained, the Eastern and Middle States have fallen only a trifle down the scale, while the Western States mainly confined to the pursuits of agriculture, have soonest felt the effects of the decline in the value of farm products

The average rate of wages for New England as compared with the Ohio Valley, (Ohio, Indiana and Illinois,) is largely in favor of New England Again, the average wages of farm labor in manufacturing districts in New England is higher than in districts in the same section where manufacturing towns are few or none at all,

This [illegible] distressing disease [illegible] [illegible] ly prevalent within a few years and is proving a destroyer of human happiness and in some cases of human life. It is not confined to [illegible] aged but is quite as frequent among children and young people as any other class One of the most effectual remedies known for this dreadful complaint is Johnson's Anodyne Liniment It has never failed as yet as we have abundant proof to show We refer with pleasure to the following letter from H D P Hutchins Esq a gentleman and a merchant well and thoroughly known in Fryeburg Oxford County Me where he resides

FRYEBURG Me [illegible]

MESSRS I S JOHNSON & Co

Dear Sirs —In the fall of 1856 I was attacked with a violent pain through my back and kidneys which laid me up for more than a year I consulted the best physicians in the county and Portland Some pronounced it kidney some spinal disease After being under their treatment six or eight months and receiving no particular benefit I was advised by a friend to try your liniment On taking part of a bottle it brought away, in my water, something similar to the filings of steel, which relieved me in part and, by continuing to take it for three months or more, I was completely cured. I most heartily recommend it as the best family medicine I ever used. With pleasure I send you the foregoing statement You can make such use of it as you deem proper

Respectfully yours
H D HUTCHINS

The foregoing statement may be relied upon not only as coming from a gentleman who thoroughly understands his own case, but one who has sold and watched the operation of our liniment for more than twenty five years

We cut the following statement some years ago — FACTS WORTH KNOWING!—Johnson's Anodyne Liniment is superior to any other Liniment or Pain Killer in the world It is equally efficacious, when [illegible] internally or or applied externally

It will cure Cough or Hoarseness
It will cure Whooping Cough
It will cure Bitters
It will cure Bronchitis
It is the best article that can be taken for Bleeding at the Lungs or Spitting of Blood
It will in most cases cure Croup
It will cure Chronic Diarrhoea
It will cure Dysentery of long standing
It is a sure cure for Bloody Dysentery
It will cure Lame Stomach
It will cure Pain in the Stomach or Bowels
It is a sure cure for Kidney Complaints of recent date and will relieve those of long standing, it will also cure diseases of the Spine And from its great Cleansing and Healing properties, it is the best medicine that can be applied to a Fever Sore
It is the best outward application known for flesh wounds, sprains, bruises swollen or stiff joints
It stands upon its own merits, and is warranted to be the best family medicine ever discovered

PILLS.

For the Cure of a great variety of Diseases, arising from the Impurities of the Blood, and Obstructions in the Organs of Digestion.

The only cathartic that will relieve the bowels, cleanse the blood, and renovate the system effectually without causing those horrid griping pains and leaving the bowels in that torpid, costive state which is true of most cathartic medicines now offered for sale These Pills are not (like most others) composed of antimony, quinine, mercury, and calomel, but of cathartics used and approved by all good medical practitioners

These Pills may be used in all forms of disease with the most decided benefit, and without fear of injury They do not cramp or rack the delicate frame or weak constitution, but will be found particularly useful by stimulating the weakened and distempered parts into healthy action

The most delicate female, and children of the tenderest age, can take these Pills with perfect safety, and the most salutary results will follow Married ladies, under all circumstances, will find these a safe and in small doses, a mild cathartic

They do not make the weak weaker, but give strength and tone to the digestive organs

ALL WHO NEED PHYSIC, TAKE P. P. PILLS.

If your system is in an unhealthy state two or three Parsons Pills will bring it round all right

Parsons Pills are the best known remedy for Constipation of the Bowels Inflammation of the Kidneys, Nervous Headache Sick Headache, Irregularity Costiveness, Biliousness, Dyspepsia Indigestion, Female Obstructions Whites Influenza, Loss of Appetite, and Loss of Strength

FROM THE 'MAINE FARMER"

Parsons Purgative Pills are a safe, reliable vegetable, and natural medicine, and may be relied upon as being the best Anti-bilious medicine in existence

Let the reader reflect that Parson's Purgative Pills are now manufactured and sold by the proprietors of Johnson's Liniment, an article that has reached a larger sale and more extended popularity than any other medicine known, and any attempt on their part to build up a reputation for a worthless article would blast their reputation as compounders of medicine, and ruin their prospects both in regard to the Liniment, and everything else for which they seek the favor of the public

Acting with this view, we have been scrupulously particular not to say any thing in favor of our medicines which the facts in the case do not warrant

PARSONS' PURGATIVE OR ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS

Notwithstanding the great variety of Pills now in the country a necessity has long been felt and freely acknowledged both by physicians and families for a safe and reliable Anti bilious Pill,—something that should be free from mercury and every mineral or deleterious substance and the really safe to administer to infants or the most delicate patient To meet this demand, Parson's Purgative Pills were compounded, every property of which has been carefully analyzed by experiment and scientific investigation Thus they are believed by physicians and people, wherever they are known to be the safest, surest and most desirable family pill in the country Notwithstanding they are so mild in their operation causing no griping pains, they are composed of powerful vegetable substances, and will be found to be sufficiently searching and active to cleanse out the obstructions in the most robust constitution Parson's Purgative Pills also have the best effect on the Liver of any medicine yet discovered, at the same time they help the Kidneys, relieve the Lungs, and cleanse the Blood of all impurities, also equalizing its circulation, thus preventing cold surface and limbs, or unusual heat and congestion, either inside or out It is as plain as 2 and 2 are 4 that what is required in a family Pill is one that will reach with effect to produce proper excretion and open all the natural drains Parson's Purgative Pills will do this with promptness and fidelity and no physician's prescription could do more Many people suppose that the Bible declares money to be the root of all evil, but it is not so,—it is the love of it which is spoken of But don't love your money so as to keep you from buying a box of Parson's Purgative Pills, when, by so doing, you may avert much pain and lingering distress and perhaps save a life Our advice is to keep them constantly on hand as you may by their use break up fevers or crop in the bud those symptoms which might otherwise result in long and weary sickness

CHAPPED HANDS —Rub them well at bed time with Anodyne Liniment, and wear leather or kid gloves during the night, for chapped lips apply it with the finger

SHERIDAN'S

CAVALRY

POWDERS

FOR

Horses, Cattle and Sheep,

These Powders should be given in all cases of Appetite, Roughness of the Hair Stoppage of [illegible] or Water, or thick Water, all Coughs, Swelling of the Glands of the Throat Worms, [illegible], Hide Bound, Thick Wind [illegible] [illegible] are equally good for Diseases of Horned Cattle and Sheep

VALUABLE TESTIMONY

IN FAVOR OF SHERIDAN'S CAVALRY POWDERS

We regard the following as the most [illegible] testimony which we have to produce to show the superiority of our Powders over all others, and the [illegible] of giving them freely to horses that [illegible] is —

[illegible]

Our travelling agent called upon Messrs Pope & Co , lumber merchants, Machias Me tried to sell them some of our Sheridan's [illegible] ders but they refused to buy them, stating that they did not believe that they were [illegible] and secondly, that they had some of another on hand, which they could neither use [illegible] account of their worthlessness Our agent thought it important that they should have them, and that they employed a large number of [illegible] business) proposed to leave them there with the understanding that they [illegible] and if not entirely satisfied, they [illegible] ing for them The Messrs Pope & Co [illegible] proposition, and took the Powders. [illegible] months after our agent again [illegible] they cheerfully paid for the three [illegible] ditionally and bought [illegible] ceeding following just twelve months [illegible] leaving the first three (3) dozen [illegible] the Provinces, our agent sold them [illegible] more, making SIXTEEN (16) dozen [illegible] cash, in just one year We avail ourselves of opportunity to publicly thank the Messrs Pope & Co for their generosity in permitting us to use their names, for certainly there are none [illegible] ly or favorably known and none that [illegible] more advantage to us in point of influence

AN HONEST DOUBTER CONVINCED

In February 1868 our agent called upon Charles Sager, who keeps the largest [illegible] livery horses in the city of Portland Me and [illegible] to sell him a sample dozen of our Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders but the captain stubbornly refused to buy and would not even receive them on trial with the option to pay or not, as [illegible] remarking that he could make a Condition Powder himself that would answer his purpose [illegible] had some of another kind on hand, that [illegible] occasionally So our agent contented himself with putting up a poster in his office, gave him [illegible] of the Powders and departed During [illegible] Capt Sager went to the City Hotel [illegible] and, without solicitation, bought for [illegible] of the Cavalry Powders and volunteered [illegible] his name in any way that would [illegible] their field of usefulness

All who know Capt Sager, and have [illegible] with him will unite with us in [illegible] of the most candid, reliable, and [illegible] men in the State of Maine, and his [illegible] as well as on other subjects in any [illegible] with horses is entitled to great consideration

WHAT THEY ARE FOR

"Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders should be given to horses in all cases for loss of Appetite, Roughness of the Hair Stoppage of Bowels or Thick Water, all Coughs and Colds, Sore Throat, Worms, Horse ail, Hide bound, Wind, and Heaves They are equally good for cases of horned cattle and sheep, young horses fitting for market may be greatly improved and very much enhanced in value, by their use powders

Old horses, almost worn out and quite useless, may be rejuvenated, and made to do [illegible] ble amount of service, by the use of the Condition Powders " Most horses are [illegible] worms, and, while they exist in a horse he [illegible] thrive the food that should strengthen [illegible] the animal is absorbed by the worms [illegible] horse will have a great appetite and [illegible] grow poor

SYMPTOMS —Hide bound, coat staring [illegible] and glaring, great appetite &c Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders will positively [illegible] worst cases,

There is no man or set of men, that [illegible] Powders on a horse, no matter how [illegible] he may be, without admitting that [illegible] been benefitted many times the value [illegible] ders given In support of the above [illegible] ask attention to the following —

The undersigned, having experienced [illegible] fits resulting from a frequent use of [illegible] Cavalry Condition Powders " for [illegible] permit the use of their names in [illegible] them to be (in their opinion) the best [illegible] kind now in the market
